The surf, sun and sand that made Australia's iconic Gold Coast one of the nation's fastest-growing cities also make it among the most vulnerable to the impacts of climate change. Leading coastal, water and urban planning researchers will guide this full-day tour, presenting a snapshot of both the threats and the innovative adaption measures underway from the canals to the coast.

Field Trip Date: Friday, 2nd July

The Gold Coast Planning for Change field trip will begin at 8.30am at Broadbeach and end at 4.30pm at the same location. Participants are advised to bring a hat, water, sunscreen and a warm jacket for the boat trip.
