

Welcome to the Social, Economic and Institutional Dimensions of Adaptation to Climate Change (SEI) Network. Please provide us with a few contact details so we can keep you informed of ongoing and future research in this theme.

[A.] Contact details

Name:

Preferred title (please mark X as appropriate):

Mr Ms Dr Prof. Other: _____

Email:

Telephone:

Webpage:

[B.] Research interests

Affiliation:

Sector (please mark X as appropriate):

University CSIRO Government Private sector Other: _____

Discipline(s) (please mark X as appropriate):

Anthropology	<input type="checkbox"/>	Philosophy	<input type="checkbox"/>
Development studies	<input type="checkbox"/>	Political science	<input type="checkbox"/>
Environmental law	<input type="checkbox"/>	Psychology	<input type="checkbox"/>
Economics	<input type="checkbox"/>	Public administration	<input type="checkbox"/>
Environmental studies	<input type="checkbox"/>	Resource management	<input type="checkbox"/>
Geography	<input type="checkbox"/>	STS studies	<input type="checkbox"/>
Indigenous studies	<input type="checkbox"/>	Sociology	<input type="checkbox"/>
Law	<input type="checkbox"/>	Other _____

[C.] Searchable database information: Keywords

The NCCARF SEI network aims to build a large, inclusive and diverse community of researchers and decision makers. We ask that you provide some key words to describe your research interests. These key words will be searchable online, and will link to your contact details at: <http://www.nccarf.edu.au/>

Key words (please select as many as apply):

perspectives		structures / institutions
economic	<input type="checkbox"/>	markets	<input type="checkbox"/>
indigenous	<input type="checkbox"/>	local government	<input type="checkbox"/> community	<input type="checkbox"/>	state government	<input type="checkbox"/> policy	<input type="checkbox"/>	national government	<input type="checkbox"/> justice and equity	<input type="checkbox"/>	legal systems	<input type="checkbox"/> natural resources	<input type="checkbox"/>	insurance systems	<input type="checkbox"/> infrastructure	<input type="checkbox"/>
climate changes		locations
bushfire	<input type="checkbox"/>	cities	<input type="checkbox"/>
drought	<input type="checkbox"/>	coasts	<input type="checkbox"/>
extremes	<input type="checkbox"/>	rural / remote	<input type="checkbox"/>
floods	<input type="checkbox"/>

Add any other keywords that describe your research interests within the social, economic and institutional dimensions of adaptation here:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

[D.] Searchable database information: Publications

A searchable database of key publications relevant to the network will also be available. Please provide any suggestions you have for publications relevant for the network. We ask that publications that are of specific relevance to this theme: i.e. on societal, economic or institutional aspects of adaptation. We are especially interested to hear of suggestions which reference Australian case studies.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

[E.] Disclosure of information

We would like to make your contact details available on the NCCARF website, to facilitate the networking and community-building aims of the SEI network. Please indicate whether you would be happy for these details to be displayed (please mark X as appropriate):

- (1) I am happy for my institutional contact details to appear on the NCCARF website
- (2) I would prefer my details were not displayed on the site

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

[F.] Please indicate the date this information was supplied:

(dd/mm/yyyy)

Many thanks! Please return this form to:

Electronic submission (you will need Microsoft word):
tinas@unimelb.edu.au

Postal submission (print off and complete this form then send to):
Tina Soundias
Department of Resource Management and Geography
221 Bouverie Street
The University of Melbourne
Victoria 3010