

Griffith Centre for Coastal Management

in collaboration with the Australian Climate Change Adaptation Research Network for Settlements and Infrastructure presents

Coastal Community Engagement under a Changing Climate

This workshop will highlight the work undertaken by the Griffith Centre for Coastal Management's Coastal Community Engagement Program as well as specific issues raised with current coastal developments. The workshop's case studies will focus on issues relating to effective coastal management and climate change adaptation.

PRESENTATIONS BY

- + ANNE LEITCH, CSIRO
- + PROF. PAUL BURTON, URBAN RESEARCH CENTRE
- + NAOMI EDWARDS, GCCM
- + PETA WILLIAMS, GCCM

CASE STUDIES WILL INCLUDE

- GOLD COAST A-LINE SEAWALL,
- CURRIMUNDI LAKE &
- WOOLI TOWNSHIP

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- + Local Council
- + Regional bodies
- + State Government
- + Peak environmental groups
- + University researchers

SMART WATER Research Centre
Griffith University, Gold Coast Campus
G51 1.03 A & B
Wed 28th November 2012, 9:00am-3:30pm

For more information contact
Griffith Centre for Coastal Management
p: 07 5552 8506
e: gccm@griffith.edu.au

Proudly supported by

